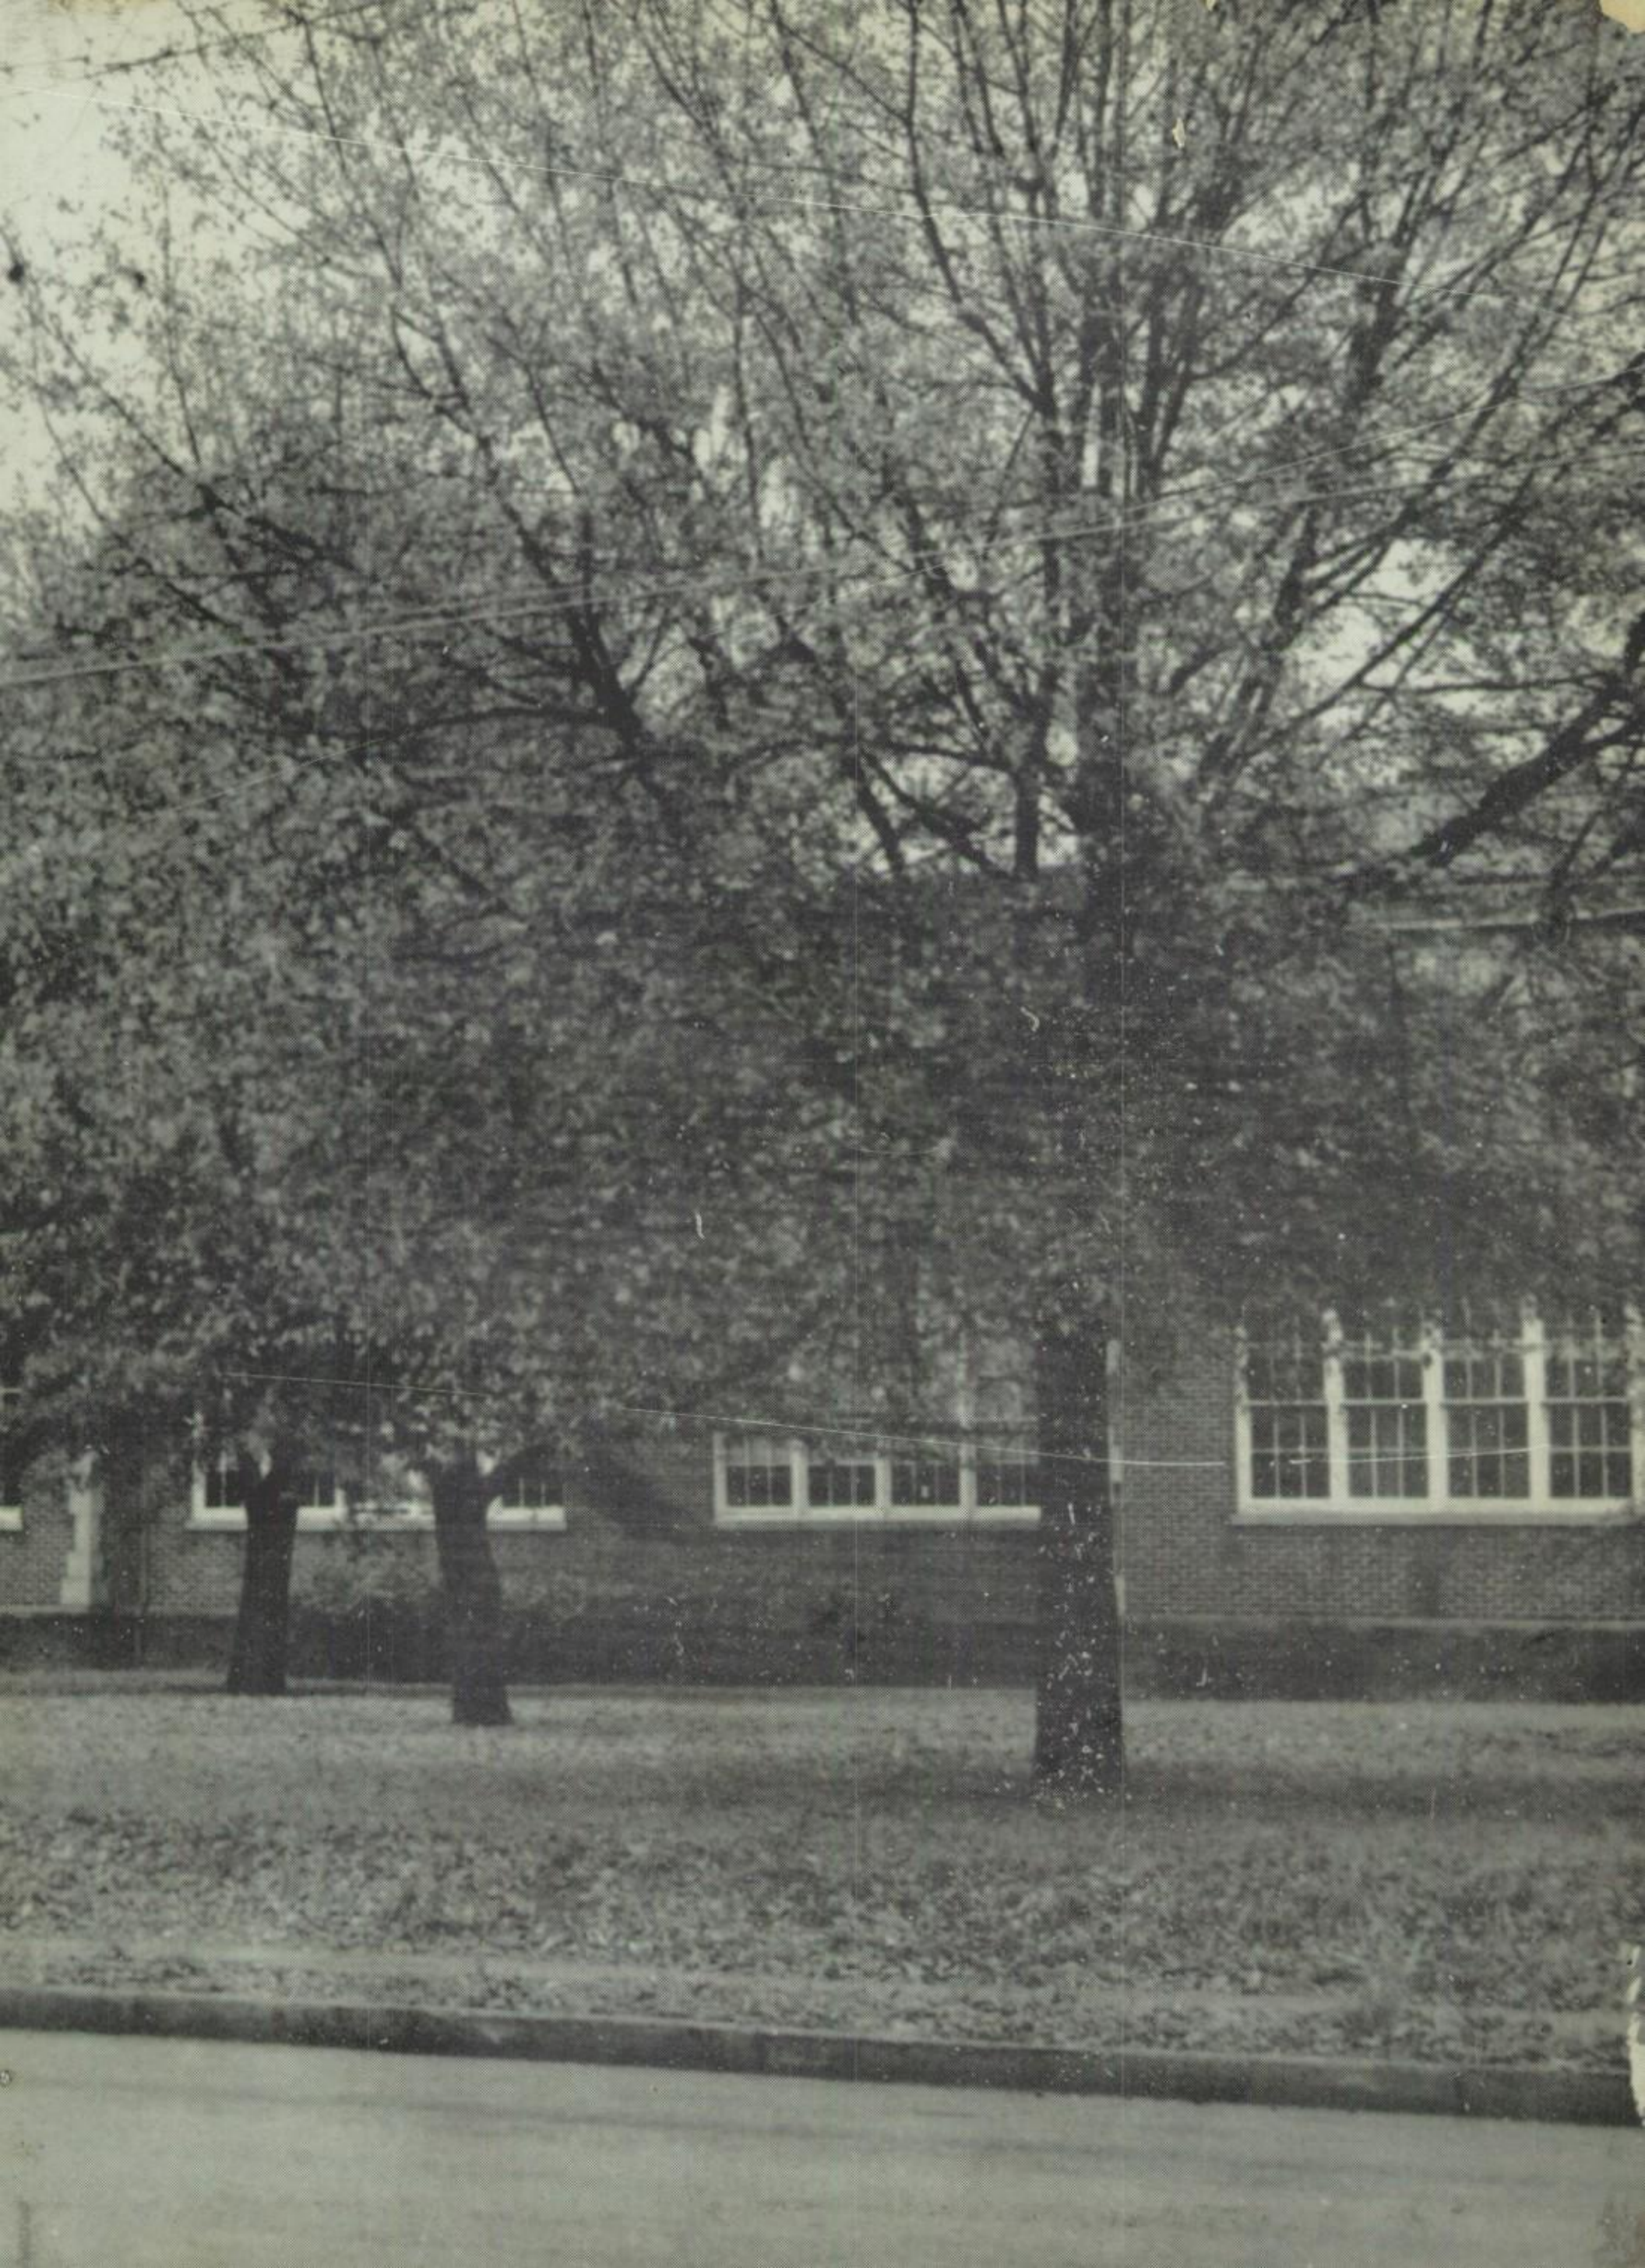
VALLIHI

1952



In accepting the responsibility of publishing the third edition of the Vallihi we, the members of the annual staff, agreed that this year we would try to give you an annual that would live up to the standards set by our school through the many achievements in its separate departments. We hope that you will like this edition of the Vallihi and that throughout the coming years you may keep it as a reminder of this year at Fort Valley High. We hope that you will overlook our amateurish mistakes and that the publication of this annual may be another step forward toward making our school one of the finest in the State of Georgia.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT of the
SENIOR CLASS—1952

We, the Seniors of the Class of 1952, being of probable sound mind and in possible good health, do this day hereby certify this Last Will and Testament. We leave to posterity and to all students who can make the grade through twelve long years these last remarks and remembrances.

1. Alyce Akins leaves to Nan Carithers her tiny waistline with hopes that she will not starve.

2. Richard Aultman leaves his ability to catch on to jokes to anyone who doesn't understand them.

3. Dothan Bass leaves his love for Coach Faircloth to anyone who thinks it's worth accepting.

4. Vernon Bowden leaves his athletic looking physique to Al Hutto, hoping he'll make better use of it.

5. Carolyn Bozeman leaves to Sylvia Scarborough her flirting ability and her desire and effort to always try and know more people in other towns than Kay Fuller.

6. Jerry Bryan is just satisfied to leave.

7. J. B. Cliett leaves his love for blue eyes and blonde hair to Jimmy Rasnake. Watch out Jimmy, fickle blondes always mean TROUBLE!

8. Jimmy Cripps leaves his ability and energy from winning the State Championship in piano for the 1951 to Billy Sanders, hoping that he will take it up.

9. Jack Davis leaves his ability for learning to type in 10 easy lessons to Kay Fuller.

10. Frankie Goodrum wills her philosophy of life to Royce Collins because he says, "Ain't a word of it so."

11. Hugh Hatchett leaves to Gale Thomson his ability to find trouble anywhere and all the squirrels he ever missed.

12. James Jones leaves to Miss Bell his unfound mistakes in the answer book.

13. Ted Joyner leaves his ability to broad jump and run the 100-yard dash to fleet-footed Eddie Merritt.

14. Cecil Martin leaves his quiet and unobtrusive manner to Larry Dyes because goodness knows he needs it.

15. Bobby Mason leaves to Roy Bowden his lightning speed on the track in hopes he will be able to learn to lift those clod-knockers he wears.

16. Moose Murray leaves his 8 years in Junior High and High School to anyone who's crazy enough to take it.

17. Charles Parham leaves his slow-poke voice and little ole Southern drawl to Beth Mathews.

18. Virginia Schofill leaves her perfect attendance record to Patricia Anthoine.

19. Betty Jean Smith leaves her ability to take care of Miss Boyer's typing needs to Jimmy Rasnake.

20. Betty Mae Smith leaves her ability to be exempted from her examinations to Feddie Barnes.

21. Helen Smith leaves her changeable mind to Dorothy Aultman and hopes she does as well as she did.

22. Oliver Snapp says he wants everything he's got. So therefore he leaves nothing to nobody, except himself whom he leaves to Eleanor Dent.

23. Jimmy Stephens leaves his love for Macbeth and Miss Thelma's English classes (snooze!) to Katherine Fagan.

24. Betty Teece leaves her love for and excessive use of make-up to Virginia Leaptrot.

25. Jimmy Thomson leaves his million dollar legs and break-neck speed on the basketball court to Edward "the Turtle" Merritt.

26. Joann Whiddon leaves her ability to sing to Nan Fagan.

27. Marvin Whiting leaves his love—for women that is—to Jimmy Pearson hoping he has many happy returns.

28. Eloise Yaughn leaves her theatre attraction to Pat Yaughn.
